Dear Sir or Madam,

My name is Cathryn Garner and I am writing to you on behalf of the Grantham Youth Theatre Society. We formed in 2007 as a society in the Grantham area that aims to give chances for local young people to produce, direct and perform in musical performances and other arts activities.

We intend to produce a least one musical annually; our most recent, 'The Boy Friend' was successfully performed in August 2009. In 2010 we will be performing the musical farce 'A Funny Thing Happen on the Way to the Forum' in August.

I am writing to enquire as to whether you would be interested in supporting our society and the work we do by becoming a Patron of GYTS. For just £25 a year we can offer you 2 free tickets for the show we produce, have an acknowledgement printed in programmes and receive our bi-annual newsletter.

By becoming a Patron of GYTS you will be helping to fund opportunities for singers and musicians in the local to get involved with exciting and challenging projects. Not only do our productions provide the cast (many of whom aspire to a career in professional music, acting or dancing) with the invaluable experience of participating in high-standard shows and the opportunity to widen their credentials as a performer, but they also provide fellow members of the community with a wonderful source of entertainment.

If you are interested in offering support to us or if you have any queries or suggestions, please let me know. My contact details are listed above.

Yours sincerely,

Cathryn Garner
Hon Secretary of GYTS
